DIRECTOR REPORT:

Fire station 4/ Elections office Rebuild Update

Director Hill stated that the Fire station 4/ Election Office remodel is going right along. The structural Permit was submitted to the General Contractor from Jefferson Browne Architect. Mr. Hill also stated that if any updates, he would let the Election Board know.

Potential Special Election for Peachtree City Council in November

Mr. Hill stated that Peachtree City Council, which will be ran concurrent with the general election for November 8, but as a separate election, so we will be having a dual election right now this evening at 630pm in Peachtree City; they will be having a special call council meeting where they will potentially be calling for a vacancy, declaring a vacancy for that Post 3 City Council seat and of course, sign off on a call and essentially that IGA that we'll be having with us potentially be having the qualifying for September 14 through the 16th. Right now that is up in the air to determine those qualifying dates. But once they have done that, we will make sure we put public notice on our website. And of course, he she said we'll be putting the dates & times of qualifying on their website as well. So just be looking for that and the next upcoming dates. Essentially just the IGA that is coming from their mayor and City Clerk, and once they've signed it and it will be brought to you all for your signage, and then of course essentially to the BOC for signage.
